

HOLOCAUST CURRICULUM CASES

TARGET AUDIENCE: MIDDLE SCHOOL TEACHERS & STUDENTS
Curriculum Guides, Literature, DVDs, Photos, Posters and other Media Included

“You Can Make A Difference”

TEACHING ABOUT THE HOLOCAUST

(2 cases)

“They Made a Difference”

TEACHING ABOUT RESCUERS & RESISTERS

(1 case)

“Voices from the Holocaust”

DIARIES, MEMOIRS, ART & MUSIC

(1 case)

Located at
WIU-Quad Cities Riverfront Hall
3300 River Drive
Moline, Illinois 61265

Call Dr. Hancks to checkout a case
309/762-9481

Material in these cases promote...

Treating others respectfully and fairly; Being compassionate and kind;
Working together with others; Being courageous; Being determined and resourceful;
Persevering and not giving up; Understanding that choices have consequences;
Embracing differences; Developing a sense of questioning.

“Let us not forget, that there is always a moment when the moral choice is made. Often because of one story, or one book, or one person, we are able to make a different choice—a choice for humanity, for life.”

Elie Wiesel, Holocaust Survivor, Author and Scholar